CREDENTIAL REQUESTS

Members of the media interested in obtaining game credentials should contact Alex Morando in the Athletics Communications office at (614) 292-1389 or morando.2@osu.edu. In addition, media interested in attending a practice session should contact Alex Morando in advance.

PLAYER INTERVIEWS

Media wanting to conduct interviews with any member of the Ohio State field hockey team should contact Alex Morando to arrange the appointment. Please call at least one day in advance to allow setup time.

ROAD REQUESTS

Please direct all credential requests for Ohio State's road games to the host school's sports information director (see opponent information on page 4).

PRACTICE

The Buckeyes practice schedule varies based on the amount of games and travel schedule for the week. They practice on their home field, Buckeye Varsity Field, next to the Outdoor Varsity Tennis Complex.

WEEKLY RELEASE

The weekly release, which includes notes and statistics, is available on the official Ohio State Athletics Department web site at OhioStateBuckeyes.com. Releases are not mailed.

GAME DAY MEDIA SERVICES

Game notes and starting lineups will be made available to the media prior to each game. Scoring summaries will be distributed to the media following the game. Additional requests should be directed to Alex Morando.

RADIO/TELEVISION BROADCASTS

Any member of the media wishing to broadcast games should contact Alex Morando in the Athletics Communications office at least 48 hours prior to the game.

PHOTO REQUESTS

All still photography requests of Ohio State student-athletes and coaches must be faxed or e-mailed to Andy Devito. He can be reached by email at devito.17@osu.edu.

POSTGAME PROCEDURES

Postgame interviews will begin 10 minutes after the game ends. Players and coaches will be available on the field in front of the Ohio State bench. A member of the Athletics Communications office will escort the media to the field.

VIDEO SERVICES

For information regarding video services and game footage (if available), contact Mark Smith, manager of video services at (614) 688-5359.

ANNE WILKINSON HEAD COACH

Head coach Anne Wilkinson is in her 17th season at the helm of the Ohio State field hockey program and in her 26th season overall as a head coach. She brings an abundance of experience to the field, having coached over 400 career games and earning the 2006 Big Ten Coach of the Year award and was twice named the NFHCA West Region Coach of the Year honoree (2006 and 2010).

Wilkinson has brought one of Ohio State's longest running women's athletic programs into the national spotlight. During her years with the Buckeyes, she has developed 22 All-America selections and 62 All-Region honorees as well as 60 All-Big Ten award winners. The Buckeyes have been ranked in the National Field Hockey Coaches Association polls throughout her tenure, reaching as high as No. 3 in the 2006 season, and have made five NCAA tournament appearances since 2001. In 2010, Wilkinson guided the program to its first NCAA Final Four appearance in OSU history, which included a single-season best 18 victories and a co-Big Ten regular season championship.

Ohio State has had 13 NFHCA All-America recipients over the last seven seasons, including first team honorees Jenn Sciulli in 2011, Aisling Coyle in 2010 and Linda Haussener in 2008. With her first team selections in 2006 and '07, Yesenia Luces became just the second Buckeye to earn multiple First Team All-America honors. Berta Queralt became the first Buckeye to earn back-to-back third-team laurels since Saskia Mueller accomplished the feat in 2004 and 2005. Last year, Sciulli was honored as a first team selection, marking the eighth first team All-American in program history. Ohio State has had at least one All-America honoree every year since 1999, a span of 13-consecutive seasons. A Buckeye has been named All-America in all but one season under the direction of Wilkinson.

In conference awards, Ohio State has earned seven Big Ten Player of the Year awards the last five seasons - the first Big Ten Player of the Year recognitions in the history of Buckeye field hockey. Last season, Jenn Sciulli became the second-consecutive Buckeye to be recognized as the Big Ten Defensive Player of the Year after Aisling Coyle received the laurel in 2010 when Paula Pastor-Pitarque was the Freshman of the Year. In 2009, Queralt was named Big Ten Freshman of the Year. In 2008, midfielder Linda Haussener was named Co-Offensive Player of the Year. Yesenia Luces picked up back-to-back Offensive Player of the Year honors in 2006 and '07 and Saskia Mueller was named the overall Big Ten Player of the Year in 2006. Curlyne Wynn also earned the 2003 Big Ten Rookie of the Year award.

Under Wilkinson's guidance, the Buckeyes have garnered numerous awards in the classroom as well. In 15 years, Buckeyes have earned 67 NFHCA National Academic Squad awards, 87 Academic All-Big Ten selections, 136 OSU Scholar-Athletes accolades and three Big Ten Medal of Honor recipients - Linda Haussener in 2008-09, Saskia Mueller in 2006-07 and Allison Blanton in 2000-01.

Wilkinson is 278-206-9 in her 25 seasons as a head coach with a 199-122 (.620) mark during her tenure at Ohio State for the highest winning percentage of any head coach in the program's history. Of her 16 seasons with the Buckeyes, she has a winning percentage of .600 or better in 11 of those years with only two seasons below .500. On Nov. 4, 2005, Wilkinson recorded the 200th victory of her career when Ohio State defeated Michigan State, 1-0, in the Big Ten tournament semifinals. She notched her 100th Buckeye victory (vs. Ball State, Sept. 19) during the 2004 campaign. Most recently, Wilkinson claimed her 200th victory at Ohio State in a 1-0 win at UNH Aug. 26, 2012, in Durham, N.H.

Since starting her Buckeye career in the fall of 1996, Wilkinson has established Ohio State as a perennial Top 20 program and as one of the upper echelon teams in the Big Ten. She has guided the Buckeyes to three Big Ten regular-season championships (co-champs in 2001, outright in 2006, co-champs in 2010), a Big Ten tournament title (2001), five appearances in the NCAA tournament, one NCAA Final Four bid, 11 winning seasons and 11 Top 3 finishes in the conference standings.

Last year, the Buckeyes tied for second in the conference with a 4-2 mark and advanced to their third-consecutive NCAA Tournament - the first time the program had done so in its 40-year history.

In 2010, Wilkinson led the Buckeyes to its most successful campaign in program history, including its first NCAA Final Four appearance, a program-record 18 wins and a share of the conference regular season championship. The Buckeyes advanced to the NCAA semifinals after defeating Syracuse, 3-2, in overtime Nov. 14 - the first NCAA quarterfinal game by any OSU team.

In 2006, she guided the team to the first win in NCAA tournament history when the Buckeyes defeated California by a score of 3-1 to advance to the second round. OSU also clinched its first outright Big Ten regular-season championship with a 5-1 record in league play.

During the 2005 and '06 seasons, Wilkinson guided the squad to back-to-back appearances in the NCAA tournament, also a program first. The combined record for those two years was 30-11, including a 15-4 overall record in 2006 for a .789 win percentage - the second-best in a season in OSU history, ranking only behind the Buckeye team that went 11-2-1 (.821) in their first varsity season in 1971.

The Buckeyes concluded the 2006 season ranked No. 5 in the final STX/NFHCA poll of the season, matching their highest ranking since 2001. In the last three seasons, Ohio State has been nationally ranked, including time within the Top 10. The 15 wins in the 2005 and '06 seasons tied for the second-most in OSU history.

In 2001, Wilkinson led the Scarlet and Gray to yet another successful season when the team finished the year 15-5 overall, 5-1 in the Big Ten, No. 5 in the nation and garnered its eighth-consecutive winning season. The Buckeyes captured the first Big Ten regular-season championship and conference tournament championship in the history of the program. The tournament title gave Ohio State an automatic bid to the NCAA tournament, marking just the second appearance for Ohio State.

Wilkinson came to Ohio State after an impressive nine-year stint as the head coach at American University in Washington, D.C. She was a two-time conference coach of the year and earned regional coach of the year accolades during her tenure. Her 1994 squad finished 15-3 and received its first national ranking at No. 15. That season, Wilkinson was named Mid-Atlantic Coach of the Year as well as Colonial Athletic Association Coach of the Year. In her nine years at AU, she coached 20 all-conference players, one All-American and one CAA Rookie of the Year.

The West Chester, Pa., native is a graduate of West Chester East High School and the University of Delaware. An outstanding scholastic field hockey and lacrosse player, Wilkinson was named to the inaugural West Chester Hall of Fame class as the only female member inducted that year.

At Delaware, Wilkinson was a two-time Mitchell & Ness All-American in field hockey. She also was an All-American as a lacrosse player and helped lead the Blue Hens to a national lacrosse title in 1983. Wilkinson was a four-year letterwinner in both sports. As a senior, she was named UD's Outstanding Senior Female Athlete, receiving the award with former NFL quarterback Rich Gannon as the Male Athlete of the Year. In November 2000, she was elected into the University of Delaware Athletics Hall of Fame.

Wilkinson's international field hockey experience included playing with the U.S. Under-21 National Team and the Under-23 National Team. She was a four-year participant in the U.S. Olympic Festival, capturing a gold medal in 1985. In 1998, she was an assistant coach for the U.S. Under-23 National Team.

At the development level, Wilkinson is the director of the prestigious All-American Field Hockey Camps, Inc. For 18 years she has been the head of the summer camps, which now are held annually at The Ohio State University. She also is an active member of the National Field Hockey Coaches Association.

Wilkinson is married to the late Raj Bhangu and resides in Upper Arlington with their dogs Harley and Darby.

BIG TEN MEDAL OF HONOR

In the past decade, the Ohio State field hockey program has had three student-athletes nab the prestigious Big Ten Medal of Honor award: Allison Blanton (1999-01), Saskia Mueller (2003-06) and Linda Haussener (2005-08).

Each member institution in the conference gives the award annually to the male and female athletes in the graduating class who have attained the greatest proficiency in both academics and athletics. The Big Ten Conference office established the award in 1914 for men and an additional award for the top female was instituted in 1982. This honor includes a $5,000 postgraduate scholarship.

LINDA HAUSSENER

Midfielder, 2005-08

HALL OF FAME INDUCTEES

VANESSA IMMORDINO

Class of 2009. Played 2000-03.

Three-time All-American Vanessa Immordino finished her career in the Top 5 in the Buckeye record books in career points (127), career goals (52) and single-season points with 54 as a senior. She also was a three-time First Team All-Big Ten selection and a three-time First Team West Region All-American, as well as a 2003 Finalist for the Women's National Field Hockey Player of the Year award. A four-time Big Ten Offensive Player of the Week, Immordino was captain of the Buckeyes as a senior. She ended her career as one of five Ohio State players to record 100 career points after leading the team in goals three seasons.

BRITTA EICKHOFF

Class of 2003. Played 1994-97.

Britta Eickhoff sits at No. 2 in the Ohio State career record book with 170 points from 78 goals and 14 assists, sitting only behind Buckeye legend Sue Marcellus. In 1997, Eickhoff earned First Team America honors, becoming the first Buckeye to earn the highest selection since Marcellus last received the honor in 1979. A second-team All-American in 1996 as well, Eickhoff led the Buckeyes in scoring her junior and senior season, posting 67 points (30 goals, 7 assists) in 1996 and 49 points (23 goals 4 assists) in 1997. The two-time First Team All-West Region honoree owns three Top 10 Ohio State single season points record, including the third-best Buckeye single season effort coming in 1996 (67 points).

SUE MARCELLUS

Class of 1996. Played 1976-79.

Regarded as Ohio State's best field hockey player, Sue Marcellus is the only athlete in the program to have her number retired. While at OSU, she was the all-time leader in career goals (117), career points (254) and single-season points (82), earning All-America honors in 1977, 1978 and 1979. She was a member of the US National Team from 1977 to 1980 and member of the 1980 US Olympic Team.

E. TEMPLE MESSER-BACKER

Class of 1997. Attended Ohio State 1921-26.

(Also lettered in softball)

Although varsity sports didn't exist for women in the 1920s, E. Temple Messer-Baker participated in track and field, baseball, soccer and field hockey while a student at Ohio State. In 1925, she competed in the first women's intercollegiate track meet held in Ohio Stadium. After graduating with a degree in education, she went on to serve as a player, teacher and coach. She played on the American Field Hockey team, coached boys basketball and served as president of the Elk's Ladies Golf Association.

BARBARA WETTERS-BLOSSER

Class of 1993. Attended Ohio State 1971-75. (Also lettered in basketball and tennis)

Three-sport star Barbara Wetters-Blosser competed in three national championship events in one year. A four-time Big Ten doubles champion, she was named to the 1971 Midwest Collegiate All-Star Field Hockey team. She also was captain of the basketball team as a freshman and sophomore. After leaving Ohio State, Wetters-Blosser served as an athletic administrator at William & Mary College.

PEGGY PALUMBO

Class of 2005. Attended Ohio State 1958-61. (Also lettered in basketball)

A pioneer for women's sports at Ohio State, Peggy Palumbo was a first-team All-Lake Erie field hockey forward, as well as the captain of the unbeaten women's basketball team in 1960-61. Palumbo, the second in her family to be inducted into the Hall of Fame, also served as the president of Ohio State Physical Education Association (1960-61). After leaving Ohio State, she spent 20 years coaching girls high school sports in Cleveland area (basketball: 1970-90; volleyball: 1974-76; track and field: 1971-77; softball: 1978-1982).

OHIO STATE CONFERENCE HISTORY

1981-1988: Ohio State competed in the Big Ten Conference; field hockey was eliminated in 1989 when Purdue eliminated the sport.

1989-1991: Ohio State competed in the Midwest Collegiate Field Hockey Conference.

1992-Present: Ohio State competes in the Big Ten Conference; field hockey was reinstated in the conference in 1992 when Penn State joined the Big Ten.
